

Redexis appoints Borja Polo as CFO

Madrid, 26th May 2021

Redexis announces the appointment of Borja Polo as Chief Financial Officer \(CFO\). Borja, currently Director of Strategy and Business Development, will add to its current responsibilities the areas of Accounting, Tax, Corporate Finance and Investor Relations, continuing as member of the Management Committee.

Borja is graduated in Business Administration and holds a Master degree in Management Development by Deusto University. He has over 18 years' experience in executive and strategic consulting positions, having actively participated in funding rounds and leading M&A transactions at Redexis, as well as several transformation and development projects. Since joining Redexis on 2011, he has held several leadership roles including the areas of Strategy, Expansion and Planning and Control. Prior to joining Redexis, Borja served as strategy advisor at KPMG and Accenture and was an auditor at Deloitte.

Redexis would like to thank former CFO, Antonio España, its contribution on the development and growth of Redexis through the years. Antonio left Redexis on March 2021 for his next professional challenge.
