

Redexis Gas signs 125 million euros loans with the European Investment Bank
23 January 2018

We are pleased to inform that yesterday the Vice-President of the European Investment Bank (EIB), Román Escolano, and the Executive Chairman of Redexis Gas, Fernando Bergasa, have signed the facilities for up to 125 million euros to develop the natural gas networks of Redexis Gas in Spain. The loan, with a maximum term of 20 years and a repayment grace period for the first three years, is part of the support offered by the EIB under the European Fund for Strategic Investments (EFSI). The loan has an availability period of three years.

The facility will be used to fund investments in gas distribution assets to provide access to natural gas to households and industries including the development of networks in the Canary Islands.

The transaction demonstrates the EIB's confidence in the Company and impacts positively on overall finance costs.
