

Redexis appoints Gonzalo Gómez Navarro as CFO

Madrid, 15th April 2026

Redexis announces the appointment of Gonzalo Gómez Navarro as Chief Financial Officer (CFO). In his new role, he will lead Redexis's financial strategy, with responsibility for the group's economic and financial management and planning, financial control and procurement, relationships with lenders, investors, and other company stakeholders, as well as support for the group's strategic plans. This will take place in a context focused on driving energy infrastructure management, digitalization, and the development of renewable gases as a key pillar for decarbonization. Gonzalo is also member of the Steering Committee.

Gonzalo has a solid professional background of more than two decades in the financial field, combining extensive experience in the energy sector with in-depth knowledge of the investment and financing environment linked to international funds. Throughout his career, he has held senior leadership positions in private equity-backed companies, leading financial planning, management control, corporate finance, investment operations, and investor relations.

Prior to joining Redexis, he served as CFO at Magnon Green Energy, a company specializing in renewable energy and bioenergy, as well as at Altamira Asset Management and Empark, leading platforms in real estate asset and infrastructure management. More recently, he was CFO of Livensa Living, a pan-European investor and operator of student housing and flexible living accommodation, where he participated in the development and consolidation of the project in Southern Europe. He holds a degree in Economics, with a specialization in Business Administration and Finance, and an MBA from INSEAD, a leading international business school.

Redexis would like to thank former CFO, Borja Polo, its contribution on the development and growth of Redexis through the years. Borja left Redexis in January 2026 for his next professional challenge.
